"PRIMARY" - THE NEW WAVE IN CRASH DEMENTIA

We wish you a merry christmas, we wish you a merry christmas, we wish you a merry christmas and a happy new year.

This is it, the NEW magazine that's going to have you tingling and close to the edge of the strongest orgasm you could ever fucking imagine.

Born from the ashes of the once infamous magazine "10:15", we have Primary. The producers and writers have all gotten together again to fill your head with another kick-arse underground magazine. So, dear reader, be prepared to witness another wave of virulent infestation, never before witnessed by human beings.

Well fuck me! Not only does January see the start of a new year (1992-Just in case you live in stupidity), it also sees the start of a new mag entitled: Primary. With a snazzy little sub-title that goes something like this: The new wave in crash dementia.

You probably want to know about this mag right? Yeah, well it goes along the lines of this:

EDITORIAL: The place where we bullshit on about anything that pleases us. The bit that half of you will wish you hadn't read.

FEEDBACK: A beautiful little place in the kingdom of magazines, where you, the readers, get to write in about whatever you want. (Be warned, everything you send will be publicated!!) Including a response from us, that is, of course, if one is needed.

NEWS: Basically the latest computer orientated information that we can lay our hands on and supply to you.

REVIEWS: On the movie side, this will include a) Usually two film reviews, whether it be big or small screen, b) The Top 10 videos at the time of writing, c) Any new releases that could be worth a perv, and d) Video Clips, where anything exciting is put in. On the music side, this will include a) 2 or 3 album reviews, and b) Upcoming material from whoever might be releasing any albums.

BULLSHIT: The page where you can get a message across to someone eg. SOMEONE IS A FUCKWAD!!! And any other shit like that, hence the name Bullshit. Also included are your stars.

This, basically, is an off-beat magazine, you will find serious stuff along with total and utter, laughable crap. It isn't necessarily computer orientated, so if you want to write in, you don't have to write in about computers, you can write in and tell the world about what get's you horny if you want to, personally we don't give much of a fuck what you write, as long as it's worth printing, and most of the time you can expect a reply or at least a comment; inserted after your letters, and no, your letters won't be edited.

We are two schizophrenic buttfucks, who just don't know when to quit, so our attitudes could change as easily as pissing in a bucket.

As this is the very first issue of Primary Magazine, there will obviously be no feedback section, we are hoping that you will change that awfully fucked up situation.

MOVIE REVIEWS

Personally, I think The Cure are the best thing that ever happened to the music scene. On this video, we see The Cure's history documented from the album "Kiss Me Kiss Me Kiss Me" up until "Never Enough". It has 12" versions for both "Why Can't I Be You?" and "Hot Hot Hot!!!". Unlike many other music videos, it has bits between the songs, like cuts from interviews, in the process of making filmclips, eating, jamming at a concert, practise sessions and live appearances on T.V. shows. The best film clip on the vid would have to be "Lullaby", where Robert Smith gets eaten by a giant spider, which I reckon looks like a giant pair of cunt lips, but still, who cares? This video is a complete must for any Cure fan and even if you don't like The Cure, it would be worth a look anyway. If you can't stand them and you absolutely hate them, then you aren't worth the worry.

On the great movie rating scale of 1 to 10, I'm giving this baby a definite 7, and a little bit more.

TERMINATOR 2: JUDGEMENT DAY RATED M (VIDEO)

People say that sequels are never better than the originals, this may be true, and if it is the case for The Terminator, then Terminator 2 runs pretty fuckin' close to being better than the original. In this movie, Arnie plays a Terminator but he's a good Terminator (Somewhere between the first movie and the second one, John Conner steals the plans for the Terminator), his mission this time is to save John Conner because the dudes from the future have sent some other machine called the T-1000 after him. The T-1000 is pretty fuckin' classic I can tell you, but I won't 'cause it'll probably spoil the whole flick for you and it won't be worth getting the fucker to see it.

The special effects in this movie are absolutley fucking superb and when I say fucking superb, I mean FUCKING SUPERB! Absolutely and completely spectacular. The acting and the action keep you looking at the screen and the one liners (The few that there are) make you wonder what the fuck is going on.

This is a hot shit movie and I'm telling you to get it as soon as you can. Remind yourself that this movie has a rating somewhere between 9 and 10. It's fucking great.

- 4: Greencard
- 5: Three Men and a Little Lady
- 6: Awakenings
- 7: Kindergarten Cop
- 8: FX 2
- 9: The Godfather-Part III
- 10: The Doors

MUSIC REVIEWS

THE CURE - "MIXED UP"

This is a collection of 12" Mixes and Remixes of some of The Cure's older songs-except for the new single "Never Enough". You would probably be thinking that this is a bit of a wank and that they just couldn't come up with new material, well, think again. Songs like "Pictures of You", "Close To Me", "The Caterpillar" and "Inbetween Days" have all been remixed and have had a great new dance beat added to them and to tell the truth, none of them sound like the originals, except for the lyrics. This is a pretty fucking good album and if you're needing something different for a party, then this is what you want.

Not only has this album got a fair bit of dance stuff on it, it's fuckin' long, almost an hour and a half in length. Pretty good shit this is. Out of 10 it would be just touching on the 9 side of things.

CARCASS - "NECROTICISM: DESCANTING THE INSALUBRIOUS"

This album isn't total shit, but basically the word shit sums it up. It isn't as fucked up as their other two albums "Reek Of Putrefacation" and "Symphonies Of Sickness", but it isn't something that I would blow my pants over.

At the start of nearly every song there is something like an interlude, in which you hear someone babbling on about some bullshit, it sounds like whoever is speaking is in a courtroom.

Carcass's writing talents haven't improved, they still have fucked up titles and fucked up lyrics, although they are a lot tamer than the other two albums. The best song on the album would be the last track, entitled: Forensic Clinicism/The Sanguine Article.

There music is alot better than it used to be, but you still can't understand the lyrics. Overall, I'd rather eat someone's brains than listen to this album again. I give it a 5 because they sound better than they used to, not because they are good.

JESUS JONES - "DOUBT"

If you like the likes of 'THE CURE' then you'll love the sound of 'JESUS JONES'. The album is the first commercial album from the band. There hasn't been much of a change in their music from their previous underground music(underground rules-Ed.) Their style is a combination of dance, hip hop and a bit of thrash. The lead vocals are haunting, especially on the track entitled "Right Here, Right Now". This album is a definate must for any music listener, no matter what genre appeals to them. A versatile album of many moods and sounds, "DOUBT" is in a class of its own. JESUS JONES have set a new a precedent in music, which if we're lucky will sweep the world off thier feet.

Out of ten I would give it a 7+. Well worth the money.

BULLSHIT

STARS

CAPRICORN (Dec 23-Jan 20): If I were you I'd keep your arse inside your house this month 'cause there's some fucked up happenings headed your way. Ya'r anus has calmed down a bit, bringing alot of bullshit into your otherwise pretty much boring life. Enjoy the stupidity of other people and laugh at them when they fall over because it's fun to make fun of other people. Don't use your microwave oven.

AQUARIUS (Jan 21-Feb 20): Your going to die this month. In the meantime, your going to contract Herpes from your lover.

PISCES (Feb 21-Mar 21): Don't stick your head out to help anyone this month 'cause they're going to piss you off by gettin a sledghammer to it. You'll find out that all your friends are complete and utter cunts, your girlfriend or boyfriend is doing the dirty on you, your brother or sister is gay, if you haven't got any siblings then it's your father. You will also find out that you were adopted and that your real mother was a prostitute. Don't bother to try and find her because she has died from Aids, you will also find out that you have got it too. Everybody will start calling you Freddie Mercury. Watch out for red cars with number plates that have an A on them.

ARIES (Mar 22-Apr 21): You get your first root this month, but find out that you did it the wrong way so you are still a virgin. If you've already had a root, then you shouldn't be reading this.

TAURUS (Apr 22-May 21): Love crosses your path in the shape of a dog. In an effort to keep your beastiality a secret, you take your own life by sticking a vacuum cleaner nozzle up your ass and sucking your intestines out. You'll probably find that it is fun too.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21): Everything goes wrong for you this month, as it has for countless years. Don't touch any power points on the 30th, they are liable to zap your brains and fry you.

CANCER (June 22-July 23): You live happily after an axe murderer takes out your entire family.

LEO (July 24-Aug 23): This month, you find out that your great grandfather was Jack The Ripper. You can do nothing but carry on the tradition. You go and kill prostitutes, starting with your father.

VIRGO (Aug 24-Sep 23): You become a re-born christian. I think that explains everything. Don't you?

LIBRA (Sep 24-Oct 23): It isn't even worth printing.

SCORPIO (Oct 24-Nov 22): Keep your mouth shut this month or you are going to get yourself in seriously deep shit. Keep your opinions to yourself, especially the ones about faggots. Keep out of the way of men wearing tight leather pants (Axl Rose for instance).

SAGGITARIUS (Nov 23-Dec 22): Life treats you like shit this month and you start to wonder whether life really is living. It would be a relatively good idea for you to keep all loaded guns away from your body, point them directly at you head instead because it works better.
